

Congressman Mark Kirk voted for both of the Wall Street Bailouts.

In 2008, Congressman Kirk proudly defended his votes for both Wall Street bailouts.

“Many of you know we just voted on an economic rescue package and the calls running into my district were 100% against that bill. Dan Seals took the popular position and he said he would have voted NO on the rescue package.”

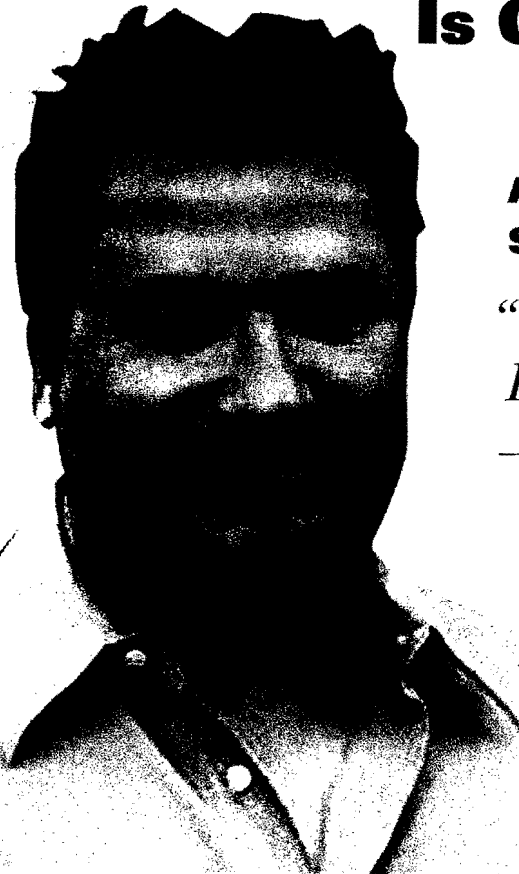

*“I voted FOR it, both the first time and the second time, because I will always vote to protect your job even if it means losing mine.”*¹ — CONGRESSMAN MARK KIRK, League of Women Voters 10th District Congressional Debate, 10/19/08

Now he claims he’s a fiscal conservative. Is Congressman Kirk telling the truth?

After Kirk proudly voted twice for the Wall Street bailouts, Libertarian U.S. Senate candidate Mike Labno had this to say about Congressman Kirk:

*“He’s not a conservative. He’s not a Republican.
He’s not a Libertarian. He’s none of the above...”*²

— CONSERVATIVE U.S. SENATE CANDIDATE MIKE LABNO, ABC News 7, 9/18/10

While Kirk and Labno argue, Alexi Giannoulias will end taxpayer bailouts forever and protect our jobs from Wall Street abuses.

Alexi Giannoulias wants to permanently end taxpayer bailouts of Wall Street. He supports making Wall Street interests pay into a fund to cover future disasters, never again turning to taxpayers. He will rein in the Wall Street abuses that created this economic mess and put a stop to outrageous executive bonuses financed by taxpayer money.
